- 1. Insurance Corporation of New York is authorized to write insurance in Washington State.
- 2. The Insurance Corporation of New York is subject to Title 48 RCW, the Insurance Code, and to Title 284 of the Washington Administrative Code ("WAC"). RCW 48.30A.060 requires each property, vehicle, casualty, marine transportation and surety insurer licensed in this state to file an annual report with the Office of the Insurance Commissioner (OIC) to show their activity in combating fraud. This report must include a summary of actions taken under anti-fraud plans, measures taken to protect the integrity of electronic data processing and manually generated data, statistical data on the resources committed to combating fraud and the amount of fraud identified and recovered during the reporting period of 2001.
- 3. On January 18, 2002, the OIC notified you that the report was due by April 1, 2002. On May 17, 2002, OIC sent a second notice to you that the report had not been received and that you had until June 7, 2002 to comply or be in violation of WAC 284-30-650 and appropriate disciplinary action would be initiated.
- 4. To date, Insurance Corporation of New York has failed to file its 2001 Anti-fraud report.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

- 1. The failure of Insurance Corporation of New York to file its year 2001 Anti-fraud report by April 1, 2002, violated WAC 284-30-650 and RCW 48.30A.060.

- 3. Additionally, under RCW 48.05.185 the Commissioner may levy a fine upon the insurer in an amount not less than two hundred fifty dollars and not more than ten thousand dollars, "After hearing or with the consent of the insurer and in addition to or in lieu of the suspension, revocation or refusal to renew any certificate of authority."

Failure to pay the fine timely and in full will constitute grounds for the suspension or revocation of the insurer's certificate of authority in Washington State. It will also result in a civil action to recover the fine, brought on behalf of the Insurance Commissioner by the Attorney General of the state of Washington.
- 2. Insurance Corporation of New York also stipulates that it will file its 2001 Annual Anti-fraud Report at the same time the fine is paid and that it will comply with all insurance laws and regulations of this state in the future, including but not limited to RCW 48.30A.160.
